

AD Access Door

Introduction

Prudent Aire Access Door are installed at sheet metal ducts to allow easy access to ducts for inspection and maintenance.

The frame is constructed from mitered pieces welded together. The cover is made from two piece of sheet metal, sandwiching the insulation in between, ensuring no exposed edges. All welded joints are ground and touched up with anti-rust primer.

CONSTRUCTIONS & MATERIALS

- Reliable operation
- Secure locking of the door
- Exceptional noise and heat insulation

Frame Construction

Galvanized Steel

Aluminium (Upon request)

Stainless Steel (Upon request)

Door Construction

Galvanized Steel

Aluminium (Upon request)

Stainless Steel (Upon request)

DIMENSIONS

